Kindergarten Parent Workshop – Teaching Your Child To Read

Cambridge Gardens Public School is a community in which teachers and parents work together for the learning needs of our students. We would like to provide parents with the opportunity to participate in a reading workshop. The aim of this workshop will be to inform parents of some of the beginning reading strategies we are implementing at our school and give some practical ideas parents can implement at home with their children.

The workshop will be on Friday the 23rd March 2018 from 12.40pm for approximately 40 minutes in the library. This will be a wonderful opportunity to work with our teachers Mrs Thompson and Mrs Patrick and meet other parents. We ask that parents let their child's teacher know if they are able to attend. We would appreciate if younger siblings do not attend.

We look forward to seeing you at our first Kindergarten workshop.
