Innovation, Excellence, Connections & Fun

Creative Writing Competition

This year, Cambridge Gardens Public School will be celebrating International Literacy Day. International Literacy Day, which is on the 8th of September, raises awareness of the value of literacy and encourages students to develop a passion for literature. Students from each stage will have the opportunity to participate in a creative writing competition. The competition is non compulsory and will be completed at home for students who wish to take part in the fun.

Each stage will be given a different picture or sentence to write a short story about. Don't forget... it's not about the quantity of writing, it's about the quality. All stories must be completed and handed to Miss Mulock by Friday the 18th of September (Week 9). There will be one winner from each stage, which will be announced at the Week 10 Principal's Assembly. The winners of the competition will receive a $20 book voucher.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Miss Mulock on 02 4730 1201.
